An Equal Opportunity Lender

Date: May 1, 2012

Dear Borrower(s):

You have the right to appeal this denial of your loan application to a Mortgage Review Board composed of lenders and citizens from your area. The Board members are appointed by the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks whose staff co-ordinated this review process as provided by law.

The Board will review the application to determine if it was declined for valid reasons or because the property is located in a specific neighborhood or geographic area. If the Board determined that your loan was, in fact, declined because of the property's location then the Board will refer the application back to the lender with the recommendation that the loan be made.

If you wish to have your application reviewed, you may do so by affixing your signature to the statement below, and returning the statement in the enclosed addressed envelope to:

Administrative Secretary
Mortgage Review Boards
Division of Banks
1000 Washington Street – 10th Floor
Boston, MA 02118

The confidential information in your mortgage application and appeal to the Board will be released only to members of the Mortgage Review Board and the Administrative Secretary. All copies are collected at the end of the review and destroyed.

If you have any questions concerning this process, please contact the Administrative Secretary of the Board at the Division of Banks at (617) 956-1500, who will, if you request, put you in touch with representatives of consumer credit organizations. The Board will notify you of the disposition of your appeal.
